DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. During a telephone conversation with applicant's attorney, Keiko Ichiye on September 7, 2004, a provisional election was made without traverse to prosecute the invention of defined specifically in claims 1-22. Affirmation of this election must be made by applicant in replying to this Office action. Claims 23-185 are withdrawn from further consideration by the examiner, 37 CFR 1.142(b), as being drawn to a non-elected invention.

Double Patenting

2. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

3. Claims 1 and 2 are rejected under the judicially created doctrine of double patenting over claims 1, 2 of U. S. Patent No. 6,167,391 since the claims, if allowed, would improperly extend the "right to exclude" already granted in the patent.

The subject matter claimed in the instant application is fully disclosed in the patent and is covered by the patent since the patent and the application are claiming common subject matter, as follows:

Claim 1 of the application represents the genus which is anticipated by the species of claim 1 of U.S. Patent No. 6,167,391. The applicant's claim that a distance is substantially larger than the mean is not limiting since nothing is done with such distance and it is axiomatic that some distance value will be larger than the mean.

Claim 2 of the application represents the genus which is anticipated by the species of claim 2 of U.S. Patent No. 6,167,391. The applicant's claim of a plurality of second values is not applied to anything and each correlithm object comes with a plurality of values (Abstract, U.S. Patent No. 6,167,391).

Furthermore, there is no apparent reason why applicant was prevented from presenting claims corresponding to those of the instant application during prosecution of the application which matured into a patent. See In re Schneller, 397 F.2d 350, 158 USPQ 210 (CCPA 1968). See also MPEP § 804.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 101

4. 35 U.S.C. 101 reads as follows:

Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title.

Claims 1-22 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the claimed invention is directed to non-statutory subject matter. Claims 1-22 represent descriptive material per se and are non-statutory (MPEP 2106 IV.B.1.) Each of claims 1-22 involve manipulations of data (in data structures) as an entity unto itself.

Conclusion

5. The prior art of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
